[illegible] Delaware and Maryland, and hardly a state or territory remains unrepresented in the three days' festival.

The streets today presented an appearance lovely in the extreme. In all directions as far as the eye could see it was one mass of painting and decoration. Many of the newspaper offices and public buildings make a lavish display, the decorators having worked early and late to complete the work in time. At day break they were still at work putting [illegible]

A feature which [illegible] disappointment or less by the weather. Every arrangement had been made by those in charge, and the day was one of the most eventfully interesting in the history of the civilized world.

The monster civic and industrial pageant started from Broad and Dauphin streets soon after 10 o'clock, and marched to Broad and Montgomery streets a distance of nearly five miles, and then countermarched to the starting point, passing through one continuous line of cheering humanity, every part of the line being handsomely decorated with flags of all nations.

The procession was intended to illustrate the progress of industrial arts and sciences during the past century, and it is said fairly eclipsed anything that had ever been known. There were [illegible] floats each bearing a [illegible] of some particular branch of industry, twelve thousand men, three thousand horses and one hundred and fifty bands of music. The honor of [illegible] was given to the [illegible] of America, who [illegible] drawn by [illegible] horses, followed by a [illegible] wagon bearing [illegible] of Columbia, emblematic of the [illegible]

A Ghastly Scene

[illegible] Wednesday afternoon [illegible] Broadway and Dauphin streets at 7:30. Not a single fatal accident occurred.

The president's party consisting of the president Mrs Cleveland, Secretary Bayard and Colonel and Mrs Lamont left Washington at 4 this afternoon in charge of Major S M Carson. A [illegible] journal before reaching Bal[illegible] more delayed the train twenty minutes which was not made up during the journey. At Baltimore a great crowd collected around the station and cheered for the president but the latter did not show himself. At Wilmington there was a big demonstration and the [illegible] crowd cheered and called for the president. He finally appeared in company with Mrs Cleveland on the platform and bowed acknowledgments. At Wilmington the presidential party were met by the Philadelphia reception committee and escorted to Philadelphia. The party landed at Thirty second and Market streets where city troops were in waiting. Under their escort they were driven to Lafayette hotel. Here [illegible] for by the throng the president and Mrs Cleveland appeared [illegible]

Northern Pacific Meeting

New York, September 15.—Stockholders of the Northern Pacific railroad met this afternoon and voted for a new board of directors for the ensuing year. The meeting adjourned after the vote had been taken, pending official count. The following was the only ticket in the field and is undoubtedly elected. August Belmont, Frederick Billings, John V. Brookman, Benjamin P Cheney, Robert Harris, Brayton Ives, Thomas Oakley, C. P. Walcott, H. Villard, Edward H Abbott, Charles L. Colby, Colgate Hoyt and John B Trevor. Many heavy stockholders were present, prominent among them Henry Villard, who voted on certain shares of stock.
